

Mr. and MRS. SCOTT J. DALRYMPLE

Connie Swain Married At Ceremony in Church

The United Methodist Church in Swain was the scene Saturday (Aug. 1, 1987) for the marriage of Connie Dee Swain and Scott James Dalrymple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Swain of Swain RD 1. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne B. Dalrymple of DeGross Road, Nunda.

The Rev. Herbert Tennes, uncle of the bride, performed a double-ring ceremony at 11 a.m. Laurie Lissow of Mount Morris was the organist. The Rev. Tennes officiated at the marriage the bride's parents 23 years ago on Aug. 1, 1964.

Baskets of peach and white silk wood lilies and babies'-breath decorated the altar and communion table.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a self-made brocade gown styled with a front scoop neckline and a back V-neckline, elbow-length puffed sleeves and a lace-trimmed skirt. Satin bows detailed the shoulders and waistline. Her fingertip veil was caught to a headpiece of pearl and crystal leaves, which the bridegroom's mother wore at her wedding. She carried a white lace fan adorned with white silk lilies and yellow silk babies'-breath with white lace and satin ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Swain was the matron of honor for her daughter. She was attired in a yellow tea-length gown fashioned with a blouson bodice, a scooped neckline and crystal pleated skirt. She wore a pearl flower circle headpiece and carried a white lace fan trimmed with white and yellow silk lilies and yellow lace and satin ribbon streamers.

Sam Adams of Hunt was the best man. The ushers were Kurt Lucas and Kirby Cox of Nunda.

A buffet dinner was served for about 100 guests during a reception at the Ponce De Leon Restaurant in Hornell.

Faculty Announced for New Term Elementary School Ready

Principal Nancy Hussey reports that Ellis B. Hyde Elementary School is ready and awaiting for 510 students expected to report next week in grades three through six.

This year there will be continued emphasis on working closely with the parents of pupils, the administrator said. The staff committee has planned activities around four central themes—citizenship, reading, science and the arts. The principal added that the school is hoping to take advantage of the personal and material resources of the staff and the community to enhance the educational program.

There are few changes in the teaching staff for 1987-88. Mrs. Rachel Seeley will replace fourth grade teacher Norma Miner who retired. Joining her in fourth grade will be Janet Hilliard, former first grade teacher at the Primary School. Judy Ann Rauber replaces David Mapes as a sixth grade instructor and Virginia Tripp will be the instrumental music teacher while Gail Cox is on leave.

Returning staff includes: Third Grade—Tina Buzzell, Line Anzalone, Rosalie Worthington, Ellen Mapes, Carol Parisella.

Fourth Grade—Norma Davis, Shirley Cox, Maryanne Molyneux. Fifth Grade—Sharon Davies, Marie Blum, Kay Berry, Charlene Quick, Shirley Stewart.

Sixth Grade—Cynthia Hinman, Janet Holcomb, Theron Thompson, Daniel Edmond.

Special Education—Keline Morrow, Ellen Aymerich, Elisabeth Cary, Mary Fran O'Connell, Marjory Chapman. Special Education instructional aides are Jean Menger and Sandra Lander.

Physical Education—Nancy Mance and James McMahon.

Music—JoAnn Crupi, vocal grades kindergarten through two and third-sixth grade chorus; JoAnn Collier, vocal for grades three and four; Joyce Eaton, vocal for grades five and six.

Mary Harris will have the art classes and Sharon Dailey is the school psychologist. Chapter One reading and math teachers are Karthryn Eldridge, Beth Feuerstein and Renee Nixon. The instructional aides are Joanne Putney, Patricia Quibell and Barbara Stoner. Cheryl Bender will direct the gifted (Rainbow) program.

Returning as school nurse-teacher is Catherine Latroella and Linda Michel continues as the home-school-community coordinator. Speech teacher is Leesa Knapp and Marian Crawford is the kindergarten through sixth grade library-media specialist. Dolores Rowe is the library aide.

Wixee Furnish is the cafeteria manager and Sue Cooper and Norma Price are the cafeteria monitors. Robert LaBar is the building custodian supervisor. School secretaries are Shirley Palmer and Betty Hoerner.

School hours will be 8 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Students who report after 8:30 a.m. will be considered tardy. Parents of students who walk to school are asked to help them plan their arrival for 8 a.m. or shortly thereafter.

Parents are reminded that the 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. period is an important part of the school day. During this time, students may receive extra help or participate in activities such as band, chorus, art workshop and intramurals. It is also the time set aside for detention, when necessary. Mrs. Hussey said that when a teacher requests a pupil to stay from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m., attendance is mandatory. Students not involved in supervised school activities will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. to walk (or ride) home.

Lunch prices have been increased for the first time in several years. The new charge will be 70 cents for a Type A lunch and 25 cents for milk or ice cream.

Parents will receive an updated
